A close-up photograph of a smooth, dark grey surface with a fine, uniform texture. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the subtle grain of the material.

SM

A close-up photograph of a dark, textured surface. The texture is more pronounced than SM, with a slightly irregular, pebbled appearance. The lighting creates a slight gradient across the surface.

BS

A close-up photograph of a dark surface with a distinct, wavy wood grain pattern. The lines are closely spaced and run diagonally across the frame.

OW

A close-up photograph of a dark surface with a very pronounced, wavy wood grain pattern. The lines are more widely spaced and have a more dramatic, undulating appearance compared to OW.
